CASH MANAGEMENT AND INVESTMENT POLICY

Scope

This investment policy applies to all moneys and other financial resources available for investment by the West Babylon Public Library on its own behalf or on behalf of any other entity or individual.

Objectives

The primary objectives of the Library's investment activities are, in priority order,

- to conform to all applicable federal, state and other legal requirements (legal),
- to adequately safeguard principal (safety),
- to provide sufficient liquidity to meet all operating requirements (liquidity) and
- to obtain a reasonable rate of return (yield.)

Delegation of Authority

The Board's responsibility for administration of the investment program is delegated to the Library Director or Treasurer, who shall establish written procedures for the operation of the investment program consistent with these investment guidelines. Such procedures shall include an adequate internal control structure to provide a satisfactory level of accountability based on a data base or records incorporating description and amounts of investments, transaction dates, and other relevant information and to regulate the activities of subordinate employees.

Prudence

All participants in the investment process shall seek to act responsibly as custodians of the public trust and shall avoid any transaction that might impair public confidence in the West Babylon Public Library to govern effectively. Investments shall be made with judgment and care, under circumstances then prevailing, which persons of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not for speculation, but for investment, considering safety of the principal as well as the probable income to be derived. All participants involved in the investment process shall refrain from personal business activity that could conflict with proper execution of the investment program, or which could impair their ability to make impartial investment decisions.

Diversification

It is the policy of the West Babylon Public Library to diversify its deposits and investments by financial institution, by investment instrument, and by maturity scheduling.

Internal Controls

It is the policy of the West Babylon Public Library to deposit all monies collected by any officer or employee of the government in the bank within five (5) business days of receipt.

The Director or his/her designee is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that deposits and investments are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly, and managed in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Designation of Depositories

The Library may deposit monies in any commercial bank or trust company authorized to do business in New York State. The bank and trust companies authorized for the deposit of monies are designated annually at the Organizational Meeting of the Board of Trustees and at any time of the year other local bank(s) may be added to the list of designated depositories of library funds as recommended by the Library Treasurer or Director and approved at a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Collateralizing of Deposits

In accordance with the provisions of General Municipal Law, § 10, all deposits of the West Babylon Public Library, including certificates of deposit and special time deposits, in excess of the amount insured under the provisions of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act shall be secured:

- By a pledge of "eligible securities" with an aggregate "market value", or provided by General Municipal Law, § 10, equal to the aggregate amount of deposits from categories designated in Appendix A to this policy.
- By an eligible "irrevocable letter of credit" issued by a qualified bank other than the bank with the deposits in favor of the government for a term not to exceed 90 days with an aggregate value equal to 140% of the aggregate amount of deposits and the agreed upon interest, if any. A qualified bank is one whose commercial paper and other unsecured short-term debt obligations are rated in one of the three highest rating categories by at least one nationally recognized statistical rating organization or by a bank that is in compliance with applicable federal minimum risk-based capital requirements.
- By an eligible surety bond payable to the government for an amount at least equal to 100% of the aggregate amount of deposits and the agreed upon interest, if any, executed by an insurance company authorized to do business in New York State, whose claims-paying ability is rated in the highest rating category by at least two nationally recognized statistical rating organizations.

Safekeeping and Collateralization

Eligible securities used for collateralizing deposits shall be held by the depository and/or a third party bank or trust company subject to security and custodial agreements. The security agreement shall provide that eligible securities are being pledged to secure West Babylon Public Library deposits together with agreed upon interest, if any, and any costs or expenses arising out of the collection of such deposits upon default. It shall also provide the conditions under which the securities may be sold, presented for payment, substituted or released and the events which will enable the local government to exercise its rights against pledged securities. In the event that the securities are not registered or inscribed in the name of the Library, such securities shall be delivered in a form suitable for transfer or with an assignment in blank to the West Babylon Public Library or its custodial bank.

The custodial agreement shall provide that securities held by the bank or trust company, or agent of and custodian for, the Library, will be kept separate and apart from the general assets of the custodial bank or trust company and will not, in any circumstances, be commingled with or become part of the backing for any other deposit or other liabilities. The agreement should also describe that the custodian shall confirm the receipt, substitution, or release of the securities. The agreement shall provide for the frequency of revaluation of eligible securities and for the substitution of securities when a change in the rating of a security may cause ineligibility. Such agreement shall include all provisions necessary to provide the Library a preferred interest in the securities.

Permitted Investments

As authorized by General Municipal Law, § 11, the West Babylon Public Library authorizes the Director or Treasurer to invest monies not required for immediate expenditure for terms not to exceed its projected cash flow needs in the following types of investments:

- Special time deposit accounts,
- Certificates of deposits,
- Obligations of the United States of America,
- Obligations guaranteed by agencies of the United States of America where the payment of principal and interest are guaranteed by the United States of America,
- Obligations of the State of New York,

All investment obligations shall be payable or redeemable at the option of the West Babylon Public Library within such times as the proceeds will be needed to meet expenditures for purposes for which the monies were provided and, in the case of obligations purchased with the proceeds of bonds or notes, shall be payable or redeemable at the option of the West Babylon Public Library within two years of the date of purchase.

Authorized Financial Institutions and Dealers

The West Babylon Public Library shall maintain a list of financial institutions and dealers approved for investment purposes and establish appropriate limits to the amount of investments which can be made with each financial institution or dealer. All financial institutions with which the Library conducts business must be credit worthy. Banks shall provide their most recent Consolidated Report of Condition (Call Report) at the request of the Library. Security dealers not affiliated with a bank shall be required to be classified as reporting dealers affiliated with the New York Federal Reserve Bank, as primary dealers. The Director is responsible for evaluating the financial position and maintaining a listing of proposed depositories, trading partners and custodians. Such listing shall be evaluated at least annually.

Purchase of Investments

The Director or his/her designee is authorized to contract for the purchase of approved investments from eligible banks or trust companies. All purchased obligations, unless registered or inscribed in the name of the West Babylon Public Library, shall be purchased through, delivered to and held in the custody of a bank or trust company. Such obligations shall be purchased, sold or presented for redemption or payment by such bank or trust company only in accordance with the prior written authorization from the Director. All such transactions shall be confirmed in writing to the West Babylon Public Library by the bank or trust company. Any obligation held in custody of a bank or trust company shall be held pursuant to a written custodial agreement as described in General Municipal Law, § 10. The custodial agreement shall provide that securities held by the bank or trust company, as agent of and custodian for, the Library, will be kept separate and apart from the general assets of the custodial bank or trust company and will not, in any circumstances, be commingled with or become part of the backing for any other deposit or liabilities. The agreement shall describe how the custodian shall confirm the receipt and release of securities. Such agreement shall include all provisions necessary to provide the Library a perfected interest in the securities.

CIRCULATION RECORDS RELEASE AND DISCLOSURE POLICY

The Board of Trustees of the West Babylon Public Library desires by this policy to give direction and instruction to its Director and all other officers and employees of the Library as to their authority in the event any requests or demand for circulation records are made to any Board member, officer, Director or employee of this Library by outside sources or agencies, public or private.

1. It is the policy of this Board to recognize that the circulation records of the West Babylon Public Library are confidential and that it is the policy of this Board to protect, to the extent permitted by law, this privacy or any patron who use the Library.
2. No Board member, officer, Director or employee of the West Babylon Public Library is authorized to make the circulation records of the Library available to any outside source or person or to any agency of the State, Federal or local government except pursuant to legal compulsion by process under or subpoena, as may be authorized under Federal, State or local law relating to civil, criminal or administrative procedures or legislative investigatory power and every officer or employee of the West Babylon Public Library is required to communicate and deliver any requests, written or oral or legal process relating to the circulation records to the Director (nothing contained in this resolution, however, is intended to restrict the furnishing of information ordinarily and customarily furnished to the West Babylon Union Free School District, the State Education Department or the Office of the comptroller of the State of New York by the Director.)
3. It is further declared to be the policy of this Board that in the event the disclosure of circulation records is sought to be compelled legally by process, order or subpoena, such legal process will be resisted by legal means until the validity has been confirmed by a court of competent jurisdiction, provided the Board believes that such legal process, order or subpoena would tend to breach the confidential nature of the circulation records. In the event that such action has to be taken so quickly that is not practical to wait until the next Director is authorized to take such action, if in the Director's opinion such legal process will tend to breach the confidential nature of the circulation records.

This shall not bar or prevent the timely filing by a present or former trustee, officer or employee of any claim, account, demand or suit against the Library on his or her own behalf or on behalf of any member of his or her family arising out of any personal injury or property damage or for any lawful benefit authorized or permitted by law.
14. FOOD AND BEVERAGE POLICY

The West Babylon Public Library strives to create a welcoming, clean and comfortable environment for the public. It is consistent with this goal to allow food and beverages to be consumed in the library in a responsible and considerate manner, minimizing the risk of damage to library collection, computers and furnishings while meeting the needs of users who are in the library for extended periods. Therefore, the following rules apply:

Snacks and nonalcoholic beverages may be consumed by patrons seated at the work tables and in armchairs in uncarpeted areas of the library and in the Café, provided the beverage has a cap or a securely fitting lid on it and the snack is small in size and not messy.

Patrons, however MAY NOT consume food or beverages near library computers. Library staff has a constant and absolute right to direct patrons to immediately remove any food and beverages that do not conform to this policy.

Patrons bringing food and beverages into the library are responsible for disposing of empty containers and trash in appropriate receptacles, they must clean up any spills or messes they create, and they must bring any more serious damage to the attention of library staff immediately.

Patrons who violate this policy may lose library privileges or incur limitations on their future ability to bring food or drinks into the library.

Staff members MAY NOT bring food or beverages to the public service desks. An exception may be made if the staff member requires water due to a medical issue. In this case, the container must have a cap and should not be placed on the desk.

INTERNET USE POLICY AND GUIDELINES

Purpose

To fulfill our mission, the West Babylon Public Library provides access to a broad range of information resources, including those available through the Internet. The Internet offers access to many valuable local, national and international sources of information. However, not all sources on the Internet provide accurate, complete, or current information. A good information consumer evaluates the validity of information found, as with other library materials.

Privacy

Internet users should be aware that Library computers are in a public area and others may be able to view what is displayed on the computer screen. The Library may use remote screen sharing software to assist users.

Supervising Children's Use

As with other library materials, parents or legal guardians are responsible for their minor children's use of the Internet. Parents should let their children know if there are materials which they do not want them to use and should supervise their child's Internet sessions.

Please be advised that some material on the Internet may contain defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, offensive, profane, sexually oriented, threatening, racially offensive, or illegal material. Parents of minors who allow their children to have access to the Internet from within the Library should be aware of the existence of such material and monitor usage by their children as necessary. Restriction of a child's access to the Internet is the responsibility of the parent or guardian; the Library does not have the right or responsibility to act 'in loco parentis'.

The Library advises its patrons against the publication of personal information on the Internet which may make them vulnerable to harassment from other Internet users. No Patron shall publish person information about others on the Internet without their approval and parental approval if the individual is under 18 years of age.

Filtering Software

In recognition that the Internet is a global entity that includes inaccurate or offensive content, the Library has installed filtering software on all Internet access computers. This software works by blocking access to a vendor predetermined list of sites and keywords. Requests will be taken to unblock specific content on a case by case basis.

The Library assumes no responsibility for the content of external sites on the Internet; library patrons view them at their own risk.

Rule Governing Use

Each registered patron is limited to using the Internet access computers for three hours or less per each calendar day.

Users may not:

1. Make any attempt to damage computer equipment or software.
2. Make any attempt to alter software or hardware configurations.
3. Submit, publish, or display on Library computers any defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, obscene, profane, sexually oriented, threatening, racially offensive or illegal material.
4. Make any attempt to cause degradation of system performance.
5. Use any Library Internet access computer for any illegal or criminal purpose.
6. Violate copyright laws or software licensing agreements in their use of Library Internet access computers.
7. Engage in any activity which is deliberately and maliciously offensive, libelous, or slanderous.
8. Upload or install any software onto Library computers.
9. Download any information to Library Internet access computers' hard disk or any diskette other than that which occurs during normal course of "browsing" the Web.

Violations will result in loss of access. Unlawful activities will be dealt with in a serious and appropriate manner.

Copyright

U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S. Code) prohibits unauthorized reproduction or distribution of copyrighted materials, except as permitted by the principles of "fair use." Users may not copy or distribute electronic materials (including electronic mail, text, images, programs or data) without the explicit permission of the copyright holder. Responsibility for any consequences of copyright infringement lies with the user; the Library expressly disclaims any liability or responsibility resulting from such use.

NOTICE

THE LIBRARY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY LIABILITY OR RESPONSIBILITY ARISING FROM ACCESS TO OR USE OF INFORMATION OBTAINED THROUGH ITS INTERNET ACCESS COMPUTERS, OR ANY CONSEQUENCES THEREOF.

MATERIALS SELECTION POLICY

The Board of Trustees of the West Babylon Public Library, recognizing the pluralistic nature of this community and the varied backgrounds and needs of all citizens, regardless of race, creed or political persuasion, declares as a matter of materials selection policy that:

1. Books and all library materials selected is and shall be, vested in the Library Director and under his/her direction, such members of the professional staff who are qualified by reason of education and training. Selection procedures of Adult, Young Adult and Juvenile materials will involve the search for the best that is available, relying on published reviews and the considered judgment of the staff. Any book or library material so selected shall be held to be selected by the Board of Trustees.
2. Selection of books and other library materials shall be made based on their value in regard to interest, information and enlightenment of all people in the community. No book or other library materials shall be excluded because of race, nationality or the political, social or religious views of the author.
3. In selecting library materials, appropriate attention shall be given to factual accuracy, effective expression, significance of subject and sincerity and responsibility of opinion. Selection shall be based upon the conscious study of the needs of the people in the district and shall go beyond the requests of patrons who use the Library regularly, reaching out to segments in the population who do not as readily turn to its services. In addition, it is recognized that the Library has a duty to provide materials outside the mainstream of popular output and to furnish in its collection a substantial representation of the critical, provocative and experimental products as well as the classic, standard enduring products of the past. The West Babylon Public Library seeks to provide its users with a live, balanced, strong collection of books and other library materials, which will serve their educational, cultural, informational and recreational needs. The Library will make every attempt to provide literature which represents a wide variety of interests and types of thought and opinion. It will always attempt to offer materials on all sides of controversial issues.
4. The Library will provide books and other materials for young adults and children which are suitable for these age groups. Whenever possible, these collections will be clearly labeled. An attempt will be made to select materials for children which are authentic in fact and feeling, straight-forward in presentation, unbiased in point of view and within the child's ability to comprehend. However, the Library will not follow a selection policy which prevents adults from reading mature literature because of the possibility it may fall into the hands of children.
5. Materials offered to the Library as gifts may be accepted or rejected by the Library. Acceptance shall be on the basis that the Library is free to keep or dispose of such materials as the Director and the Board of Trustees see fit. The Library will not accept donations and/or contributions which conflict with this materials selection policy. In the case of memorial gifts, the Library staff will assist the donor in selecting materials suitable as a gift and memorial.

6. Withdrawal and discarding of library materials occurs regularly because these items are no longer timely or accurate, badly worn or damaged, no longer popular or of interest or due to space considerations. The need for replacement of withdrawn items is judged by the existence of adequate coverage of the subject or on demand for the title.

7. The West Babylon Public Library Board of Trustees believes that censorship is a purely individual matter and declares that while anyone is free to reject materials which he does not approve of, he cannot exercise this right of censorship to restrict the freedom to read of others. This statement holds true of the Library Director and the entire Library staff involved in the selection of all Library books and materials.

8. The Board of Trustees defends the principles of freedom to read and declares that whenever censorship is involved, no book and/or library materials shall be removed from the Library save under the order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Questions relating to materials shall be referred to the Library Director. He/she has Statement of Concern forms available.

9. This Board of Trustees adopts and declares that it will adhere to and support: “The Library Bill of Rights” and “The Freedom to Read Statement”; both of which are made a part hereof.

MEETING ROOM USE POLICY

The primary purpose of the Library's Meeting Room is to serve as a venue for Library sponsored services, programs, and activities. Library services, programs and activities shall have priority over all other activities. The Library reserves the right to revoke a Meeting Room use permit or to reschedule a meeting should there be a conflict with Library related services, programs or activities; or in the case of an emergency. The Library may further cancel one or more previously scheduled dates, if demand for Meeting Room use increases.

Permission to use the Library's Meeting Room may be granted to community groups, organizations and individuals whose aims are Library connected; educational; cultural and/or civic. Use of the Library's Meeting Room is subject to all applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations as well as policies promulgated by the Library's Board of Trustees. Gambling is strictly prohibited. Scheduling availability is to be solely determined by the Library. Use of Meeting Rooms shall be non-exclusive and shall be open to the general public. There will be no fee charged for district organizations whose headquarters and members are within the West Babylon Library service area.

The Meeting Room is not to be used as a place of religious worship. Further, the Meeting Room may not be utilized by political parties or representatives of political parties when the purpose of such is to promote its political agenda. In addition, the Meeting Room is not to be utilized for the advancement of commercial or profit-making enterprises.

Advance applications received by the application deadline will be reviewed. Scheduling conflicts will be resolved by lottery. Applications received after the Formal Advance Application deadline will be considered, provided the Meeting Room is available. First time requests must be received at least four (4) weeks prior to the requested meeting date. Thereafter, new requests by the same group will receive consideration by the Library Director or Librarian in Charge. Requests for bookings will only be considered for meetings occurring within the corresponding quarterly Meeting Schedule. No more than three (3) meetings may be requested by an organization during the same quarter.

Attendance at meetings is limited to that number of persons lawfully permitted to assemble in the Meeting Room. Meeting Room use may, at the Library's discretion, be regulated as to certain days and hours so as to minimize interference with Library programs, operations and capacities of Library premises. In order to provide for fair and equitable access to the Meeting Room by all qualified community groups, the Board reserves the right to not grant permission for use of Meeting Rooms on a regularly scheduled basis. The Meeting Room use application form must be signed by a Library District resident. No application shall be considered officially approved until it is signed by the Library Director or other person designated by the Board of Trustees and returned to the applicant. By executing the application, the applicant agrees to the release of the applicant's name and telephone number to any person requesting information concerning an organization's activities or program.

Use of Library facilities does not imply endorsement of the beliefs, activities or programs of an organization by the Library or anyone connected with the Library. All publicity and/or media coverage for events in the Library, whatever the source, must be approved by the Library Director prior to issuance or coverage. The Library may only be mentioned as a location, not as the sponsor of an event or as the headquarters of an organization, in all announcements or publicity relating to a Meeting Room event. The Library's telephone number may not be given to obtain further information regarding a non-Library sponsored event. Any literature or other items to be distributed at a meeting must be submitted to the Library Director at least 48 hours prior to intended distribution. If items intended for distribution are in violation of law or regulation, distribution of same is prohibited.

The applicant must certify that the Meeting Room shall be used only for the specific activity stated on the application and for no other purpose whatsoever. No activity may disrupt Library operations.

The responsibility for the maintenance of public order and safety at a meeting is that of the applicant. Adequate responsible adult supervision shall be provided by the applicant. Groups whose membership includes minors must be supervised by responsible adults.

The Library Director or designee is authorized to order the termination of any meeting or activity in violation of any law, policy or use regulation. The determination by said Library official is final. The Library Director or designated representative, is authorized to call upon appropriate law enforcement agencies to enforce such action if, in the opinion of the Library official, circumstances warrant such an action. Further permission to use the Meeting Room may be denied or withdrawn to any group which violates any law, policy or regulation or whose conduct and activities interfere with or disrupt Library operations or patron's quiet use and enjoyment of Library's facilities.

The Meeting Room must be left in a neat and orderly fashion. If not, a written notice will be given to the applicant stating that a second offense will result in denial of further Meeting Room use.

Whenever the Library facilities are used, there is the possibility that persons may be injured and may bring legal action against the Library Board of Trustees, Library employees and/or the contracting organization, group or individual for personal liability. It is possible that organizations, groups or individuals using the Library facilities may be sued for personal injury. Each organization, group, or individual should, therefore, protect itself by having an insurance policy insuring it against such legal action. The signature of the applicant on the Meeting Room use application is acknowledgment by the organization, group or individual that it recognizes this responsibility.

In consideration of the use of the Meeting Room facilities, each organization or group agrees that it will pay for all damage to any property of the Library, resulting directly or indirectly from the conduct of any member, officer, employee or agent of the organization or group or by any person in attendance.

The applicant is to execute a hold-harmless/indemnification agreement in favor of the Library, its Board of Trustees, and its employees from any liability or claim action or loss arising from the applicant's use of the Meeting Room, including the cost of legal fees, costs or expenses incurred by the Library in connection with defending any claim arising from the applicant's use. The signature of the applicant on the Meeting Room use application is acceptance by the organization, group or individual of the indemnification responsibility.

No admission fees may be charged; no donations may be solicited or accepted; nor may any items be sold. Use of the facilities will not be granted for fund raising purposes, except as may be permissible under law and with the explicit consent of the Library Board of Trustees.

The Library is not responsible for the safeguarding of any supplies, equipment or other items owned by the applicant or by persons attending the applicant's activity. The Library will not store materials for any applicant. Items left in the Library will be considered abandoned property and will be disposed of in accordance with standard practice. Special Meeting Room table set up requirements must be requested at the time of Application and will be executed by Library personnel. Library equipment may be used only by Library personnel or properly trained applicants.

Refreshments and food shall not be served or consumed in the Meeting Room unless the Library sponsors the program or provides special authorization. Consumption of alcoholic beverages and smoking are prohibited on Library premises.

Cancellation notice of at least 48 hours is encouraged if an organization needs to cancel a meeting. A substitute date will be scheduled, if available. Upon emergency closing of the Library, all scheduled meetings are automatically canceled.

The Library, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to refuse or withdraw permission for use of the Meeting Room when an organization repeatedly cancels its assigned program dates and thereby inhibits Meeting Room use by others.

The Library reserves the right to refuse Formal Advance Application privileges for the Meeting Room, if an organization's attendance is fewer than 5 participants. Such applicants may request use of the Meeting Room after the Formal Advance Application deadline, provided the Meeting Room is available.

The final and sole interpretation of this policy rests with the Library's Board of Trustees. Implementation and enforcement are delegated to the Library Director.

It is the Library's understanding that the purpose of this notification is to provide for, to the extent possible, the safety of its patrons and their children.

In order that the information received by the Library can be most effectively utilized to secure, to the greatest extent possible, the protection of the Library's patrons and their children utilizing Library programs and facilities, the Library Director will immediately relay information received within the "Notification" received by the Library to all pertinent Library personnel, including Library administrators, professional staff, security or other personnel deemed by the Director to be in a position to appropriately utilize the information to protect the interest of the Library's patrons and their children utilizing Library facilities.

NURSING MOTHERS IN THE WORKPLACE POLICY

Section "206-c" of the Labor Law requires all employers to provide time to allow nursing employees to express breast milk.

To avail oneself of accommodations set forth in this policy, employees must submit a request to the Business Office for a room or location. Requests should, when possible, be provided prior to the employee's return to work to allow the Library to designate a location and schedule to accommodate the needs of multiple employees when needed. The Library must respond to a request within a reasonable time, not to exceed five (5) business days. Your request should include an anticipated number of breaks needed during the workday and whether you have preferred times to express milk.

The Library will provide employees with at least 30 minutes of paid break time each time an employee has a reasonable need to express milk for their infant child(ren) for up to three years following the child's birth. Employees may utilize their existing paid break time or meal time needed in excess of 30 minutes to express breast milk as well. A break may be postponed for no more than thirty (30) minutes if there is no coverage for the employee at the time.

The Library will designate a room or other location to be made available to nursing employees. The room may not be used for any other purpose while it is being utilized by nursing mothers. If the designated room or other location is not solely used by nursing employees, the room or location will be made available to nursing employees when needed. All employees will be given notice as to when such rooms or other locations will be designated for use by nursing employees. The room or location should have a door equipped with a functional lock. If a door with a functional lock is not available, as a last resort the Library will utilize a sign indicating the room is in use and not accessible to other employees or the public.

If the Library is unable to provide a dedicated room or other location, we may provide the use of a vacant office or other available room on a temporary basis so long as the room is not accessible to the public or other employees while the nursing employee is using the room for expression purposes.

The Library must designate a room or other location, other than a restroom or toilet stall, to be made available to employees who make such a request. The room will be (i) in close proximity to the work area; (ii) well lit; (iii) shielded from view; and (iv) free from intrusion from other persons in the workplace or the public. The room or other location will contain a chair, working surface, nearby access to cleaning running water, and an electrical outlet so long as the workplace is supplied with electricity. Expressed milk can be stored in the Library refrigerators provided it is sealed. Milk should not be stored overnight. The Library is not responsible for the safekeeping of any milk stored in Library refrigerators.

The Library may not discharge, discriminate, threaten, penalize, or in any other manner discriminate or retaliate against any employee because such employee has exercised their rights afforded under this section. This policy will be provided to all employees annually, upon hire, and to employees returning to work after the birth of a child.

PROCUREMENT POLICY

All purchases of goods and contracts for public services shall be made in accordance with the provisions of New York State General Municipal Law.

Except as otherwise provided by law (e.g. emergency situations) all public works contracts in excess of $35,000 shall be subject to competitive bidding. All purchase contracts in excess of $20,000 shall be subject to competitive bidding. Rejection of a low bid based upon an initial determination that the low bidder is not “responsible” within the meaning of the General Municipal Law shall be made following notice to the low bidder of the Board’s intent to so disqualify him/her and providing the low bidder an opportunity to submit a written response and proof to the Board or its designee on the issue of his/her qualifications and ability to perform the contract obligations.

For public works and purchase contracts which fall below the competitive bidding thresholds stated in the previous paragraph the following conditions shall apply:

- * Whenever possible, price quotations for proposals for goods and services shall be obtained from at least three vendors or contractors. Such price quotes may be verbal when the purchase contract amount is less than $500 and the public work contract amount is less than $500. Price quotations for proposals for purchase contracts and public work contracts in excess of the aforementioned verbal proposal amounts shall be in writing.

- * Goods or services procured pursuant New York State or Suffolk County contracts shall be exempt from the comparative price quotation requirement stated in the previous subparagraph.

- * Under normal circumstances, contracts shall be awarded to the vendor or contractor with the lowest price quotation deemed responsible. Circumstances under which the contract may not be awarded to the lowest responsible vendor or contractor include, but are not limited to:

- * Vendor cannot guarantee delivery of goods or services within the time frame or under the conditions established by the Library.

- * Vendor’s or Contractor’s terms for payment are disadvantageous to the Library, e.g. full payment before commencement of work or delivery of goods.

- * Vendor cannot fully comply with the Specifications for goods or services as set forth by the Library.

- * Vendor’s warranty for goods or services is deemed inadequate by the Library.

- * Vendor’s post-purchase support services are deemed inadequate by the Library.

No purchase of goods or services shall be made from any vendor in which any member of the Board of Trustees or the Library Administration, i.e. the Library Director, hold a full or partial interest. This Procurement Policy shall be reviewed annually. All applicable procedures are provided in the Library’s manual of Internal Controls.

RECORDS ACCESS POLICY

The following regulation is hereby enacted by this Board of Library Trustees in accordance with Public Officers Law, Article "6", Sections "84" through "90", commonly known as the Freedom of Information Act and hereinafter referred to as the "Act".

ARTICLE I: The Library Director is hereby designated as the Records Access Officer. The Records Access Officer is the person from whom those Library records, memoranda, documents or other written information required to be made available to the public by the Act may be obtained. In the absence of the Library Director, the Librarian-in-Charge is so designated as the Records Access Officer.

ARTICLE II: Request for inspection or copies of such records required to be made available by the Act, as well as other applicable law, may be made to the Library Director at the Director's office during hours in which the Library is regularly open for business. These hours shall ordinarily be Monday through Friday from 10 am to 4 pm.

ARTICLE III: Request to inspect records or to secure copies thereof, shall be submitted to the Library's Records Access Officer by completion of a requisition form or by electronic e-mail request.

(a) The requisition form or electronic request shall contain the name and address of the Requestor, identification of the record, document or other data required; with as great a degree of clarity and specificity as may be practical.

(b) In the event a copy of the particular document, record or other data is requested, a fee payable by check or money order to the order of the Library shall be paid as follows:

1. 25 cents a page for photocopies not exceeding 9" x 14", or
2. the actual cost of reproducing any other form of record, as follows:
 - i. an amount equal to the hourly salary attributed to the lowest paid Library employee who has the necessary skill required to prepare a copy of the requested record;
 - ii. the actual cost of the storage devices or media provided to the person making the request in complying with such request;
 - iii. the actual cost to the Library of engaging an outside professional service to prepare a copy of a record, but only when the Library's information technology equipment is inadequate to prepare a copy, if such service is used to prepare the copy; and
 - iv. preparing a copy shall not include search time or administrative costs and no fee shall be charged unless at least two hours of Library employee time is needed to prepare a copy of the record requested. A person requesting a record shall be informed of the estimated cost of preparing a copy of the record if more than two hours of the Library employee's time is needed or if an outside professional service would be retained to prepare a copy of the record.
3. All fees received shall be turned over to the Library Treasurer.

ARTICLE IV: The Library shall maintain a register which shall include the date of requisition, the name and address of the Requestor and a description of the documents or records to be examined or copied, as well as the action taken by the Records Access Officer in response to such requisition and a notation of the fees received.

ARTICLE V: The Library shall maintain the following records:

- (a) a record of the final vote of each Library Trustee in every Library proceeding in which the Trustees votes;
- (b) a record setting forth the name, public office address, title and salary of every officer or employee of the Library; and
- (c) a reasonably detailed current list, by subject matter, of all records in the Library's possession, whether or not such records are available pursuant to subdivision "2" of Section "87" of the Public Officers Law, which list shall be sufficiently detailed to permit identification of the category of the records requested. The Library shall update its subject matter list annually and the date of the most recent update shall be conspicuously indicated on the list.

ARTICLE VI: PROCEDURES:

3. (a) Within five business days of the receipt of a written request for a record reasonably described, the Library will make such record available to the person requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written acknowledgement of the receipt of such request and a statement of the approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of the request, when such request will be granted or denied, including, where appropriate, a statement that access to the record will be determined in accordance with subdivision "5" of Section "89" of the Public Officers Law. The Library will not deny a request on the basis that the request is voluminous or that locating or reviewing the requested records or providing the requested copies is burdensome because the Library lacks sufficient staffing or on any other basis if the Library may engage an outside professional service to provide copying, programming or other services required to provide the copy, the costs of which the Library may recover from the requester of the records pursuant to paragraph (c) of Subdivision "1" of Section "87" of the Public Officers Law.

The Library may require a person requesting lists of names and addresses to provide a written certification that such person will not use such lists of names and addresses for solicitation or fund-raising purposes and will not sell, give or otherwise make available such lists of names and addresses to any other person for the purpose of allowing that person to use such lists of names and addresses for solicitation or fund-raising purposes.

If the Library determines to grant a request in whole or in part and if circumstances prevent disclosure to the person requesting the record or records within twenty business days from the date of the acknowledgement of the receipt of the request, the Library will state, in writing, both the reason for the inability to grant the request within twenty business days and a date certain within a reasonable period, depending on the circumstances, when the request will be granted in whole or in part. Upon payment of or offer to pay, the fee prescribed therefore, the Library shall provide a copy of such record and certify to the correctness of such copy if so requested, or as the case may be, shall certify that it does not have possession of such record or that such record cannot be found after diligent search. The Library shall not be required to prepare any record not possessed or maintained by the Library except the records specified in Subdivision "3" of Section "87" and Subdivision "3" of Section "88" of the Public Officers Law. When the Library has the ability to retrieve or extract a record or data maintained in a computer storage system with reasonable effort, it shall do so. When doing so requires less employee time than engaging in manual retrieval or redactions from non-electronic records, the Library will retrieve or extract such record or data electronically. Any programming necessary to retrieve a record maintained in a computer storage system and to transfer that record to the medium requested by a person or to allow the transferred record to be read or printed shall not be deemed to be the preparation or creation of a new record.

(b) The Library will accept requests for records submitted in the form of electronic mail and shall respond to such requests by electronic mail, using forms, to the extent practicable, consistent with the form or forms developed by the NYS Committee on Open Government pursuant to Subdivision "1" of Section "89" of the Public Officers Law, provided that the written requests do not seek a response in some other form.

(c) In the event that in a portion of the material, records or documents requested is deemed by the Records Access Officer to be excludable material as outlined in Article "VII" hereof, the Records Access Officer is authorized and directed to delete such information from any copies made available to the requestor or to not make available for inspection the original of such record but only a copy thereof having first deleted the unauthorized information.

ARTICLE VII: No record shall be made available for inspection or copying where, in the judgment of the Records Access Officer, the disclosure of such records:

- (a) Is specifically excepted from disclosure by state or federal statute;
- (b) Is an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, including:
 - i. disclosure of employment, medical or credit histories or personal references of applicants for employment;
 - ii. disclosure of items involving the medical or personal records of a client or patient in a medical facility;
 - iii. sale or release of lists of names and addresses if such lists would be used for solicitation or fund-raising purposes;
 - iv. disclosure of information of a personal nature when disclosure would result in economic or personal hardship to the subject party and such information is not relevant to the work of the agency requesting or maintaining it;
 - v. disclosure of information of a personal nature reported in confidence to an agency and not relevant to the ordinary work of such agency; or
 - vi. information of a personal nature contained in a workers' compensation record, except as provided by Section "110-a" of the Workers' Compensation law.

Unless otherwise provided by law, disclosure shall not be construed to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision:

- i. when identifying details are deleted;
 - ii. when the person to whom a record pertains consents in writing to disclosure;
 - iii. when upon presenting reasonable proof of identity, a person seeks access to records pertaining to him.
 - iv. when a record or group of records relates to the right, title or interest in real property, or relates to the inventory, status or characteristics of real property, in which case disclosure and providing copies of such record or group of records shall not be deemed an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy
- (c) if disclosed would impair present or imminent contract awards or collective bargaining negotiations;
- (d) are trade secrets or are submitted to an agency by a commercial enterprise or derived from information obtained from a commercial enterprise and which if disclosed would cause substantial injury to the competitive position of the subject enterprise;
- (e) are not relevant or essential to the ordinary work of the library;
- (f) omitted
- (g) are inter-agency or intra-agency materials which are not;
- i. statistical or factual tabulations or data;
 - ii. instructions to staff that affect the public;
 - iii. final agency policy or determinations; or
 - iv. external audits

(h) Medical reports and records;
(i) if disclosed, would interfere with judicial proceedings or pending claims;
(j) Records related to the circulation of Library materials which contain names or other personally identifying information regarding the users of the Library;

(k) Relate to items of a personal nature when disclosure would result in an economic or personal hardship to a subject party and such records are not relevant or essential to the ordinary work of the Library; or

(l) if disclosed, would jeopardize the Library's capacity to guarantee the security of its information technology assets, such assets encompassing both electronic information systems and infrastructures.

Should the requested record be exempt as set forth in this Article "VII", the Records Access Officer shall deny such request, in writing and furnish a written acknowledgment of receipt of such request and advise the Requestor of the right to appeal.

In the event the District must disclose records responsive to a request for an employee's disciplinary records, the District will notify the affected employee in writing at the time disclosure is being made.

ARTICLE VIII: In the event of the refusal of the Records Access Officer to furnish Library records or other data to which the requestor declares entitlement, the Requestor may submit a written appeal directed to the Library Board of Trustees within thirty days of the denial from which such appeal is taken. The Library Board of Trustees is hereby authorized to investigate all facts surrounding the particular requisition, including an interview with the Requestor for the purposes of ascertaining the exact record of document sought, the purpose for which such document is sought in the event the Records Access Officer has declined to deliver the document by virtue of a determination by the Records Access Officer that such document is an excluded document under this Act or other law and all other facts relevant to the particular requisition. A decision on such appeal shall be rendered thereon within ten (10) business days of the Board of Trustees' receipt of the Appeal and shall fully explain in writing the reason for further denial. In addition, the Library shall immediately forward to the New York State Committee on Open Government a copy of the appeal and the Board of Trustees' determination. In the event of a denial of such an appeal, the Requestor shall have the right to commence an Article 78 proceeding in the Supreme Court, Suffolk County, to compel the production of the particular document or record.

- (h) Library policies of any kind or nature;
- (i) Library regulations;
- (j) Insurance policies;
- (k) Audits, either internal or external;
- (l) List by subject matter of all records maintained by the Library, whether or not subject to disclosure as a public record pursuant to statute

ARTICLE X: A notice containing the title or name and business address of the Records Access Officer and appeals person or body and the location where records can be seen or copied, shall be posted in a conspicuous location wherever records are maintained and/or published in a local newspaper of general circulation.

ARTICLE XI: This regulation, as amended, shall be deemed effective on July 15, 2009.

ARTICLE XII: If any provision of these regulations or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is adjudged invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such judgment shall not affect or impair the validity of the other provisions of these regulations or the application thereof to other persons and circumstances.

RESPECTFUL WORKPLACE POLICY

I. Objective

The West Babylon Public Library is committed to providing a respectful and professional workplace and public service environment for employees and third parties. Respect for one another is fundamental to working in an effective, efficient, and innovative manner. Disrespectful or unprofessional communications and behavior can disrupt the functioning of proper work units. Therefore, it is the intent of the West Babylon Public Library to:

- Ensure a respectful workplace and public service environment free of disrespectful or unprofessional communications or behavior; and
- Provide effective and non-retaliatory problem-solving processes that address concerns regarding respectful or professional communications or behavior.

II. Responsibilities

Employees and third parties are expected to:

- Conduct themselves in a manner that demonstrates professionalism and respect for others in the workplace and public service environment.
- Use informal means to address issues with the individual(s) involved whenever possible.
- Participate fully and in good faith in any informal resolution process or formal complaint and investigative process for which they may have relevant information; and
- Report incidents that may violate this policy in accordance with processes identified by the Library.

In addition to their responsibilities as employees as described above, supervisors are expected to:

- Inform their employees and third parties for whom they are responsible of the expectations outlined in this policy.
- Achieve and maintain compliance with this policy; and
- Take timely and appropriate action when a complaint is made alleging violation of this policy.

Failure to comply with this policy and its procedures may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination, as appropriate, or ending a contractor or volunteer relationship with the Library.

III. Retaliation Prohibited

- Initiates a complaint.
- Reports an incident that may violate this policy.
- Participates in an investigation related to a complaint; or
- Is associated or perceived to be associated with a person who initiates a complaint or participates in the investigation of a complaint under this policy.

IV. Respectful and/or Professional Behavior

Context is important in understanding the difference between respectful and/or professional behavior and disrespectful and/or unprofessional behavior. Individuals may experience stress or discomfort in the workplace that is not related to disrespectful and/or unprofessional behavior. For example, disrespectful and/or unprofessional behavior does not include any of the following:

- The normal exercise of supervisory or managerial responsibilities, including, but not limited to performance reviews, work direction, performance management, and disciplinary action, provided they are conducted in a respectful, professional manner.
- Disagreements, misunderstandings, miscommunication, or conflict situations where the behavior remains professional and respectful.

Disrespectful and/or unprofessional behavior may or may not be intentional. Unintentionally disrespectful and/or unprofessional behavior may still violate this policy. Examples of disrespectful and/or unprofessional behavior include, but are not limited to:

- Exhibiting aggressive behaviors including shouting, abusive language, threats of violence, the use of obscenities or other non-verbal expressions of aggression.
- Behavior that a reasonable person would find to be demeaning, humiliating, or bullying, including: teasing, name-calling, slander, ridiculing or maligning a person; persistent phone calls, voicemails, emails and/or postings on the internet/social media to or about another person; trivializing another's work; making demeaning, humiliating, and/or inappropriate comments/statements regarding colleagues to Library patrons and/or in the presence of Library patrons; destructive gossip, rumors, or innuendo.
- Deliberately destroying, damaging, or obstructing someone's work performance, work product, tools, or materials; and/or
- Use of this policy and procedure to make knowingly false complaint(s).

V. Procedures

As with all allegations of misconduct, informal resolution and formal investigatory processes related to this policy will be conducted in a timely, fair, and objective manner. Individuals are encouraged to informally resolve concerns whenever possible.

a. Informal Resolution If possible, the employee or third party who feels this policy has been violated should endeavor to have a conversation with the other individual(s) involved. Employees and third parties are encouraged to speak with their supervisor for assistance and/or guidance on how to resolve the situation. If a direct approach is not possible or does not resolve the concern, employees and third parties are encouraged to meet with their supervisor or manager to discuss next steps. If the concern is about the supervisor or manager, parties are encouraged to contact the Library Director. If the concern is about the Library Director, the parties may contact their supervisor or manager and/or contact the Library's Board of Trustees.

b. Formal Complaints Any employee or third party may choose to initiate a formal complaint under this policy. Complaints should be submitted to the Library Director. If the complaint is about the Library Director, the formal complaint may be submitted to the Library's Board of Trustees. Complaints must contain details of the situation and the identity of the person(s) against whom the complaint is being made. A person against whom a formal complaint is made may be informed of the complaint.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT PREVENTION POLICY

Introduction

The West Babylon Public Library (hereinafter the “Library”) is committed to maintaining a workplace free from sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is a form of workplace discrimination. The Library has a zero-tolerance policy for any form of sexual harassment, and all employees are required to work in a manner that prevents sexual harassment in the workplace. This Policy is one component of the Library’s commitment to a discrimination-free work environment.

Sexual harassment is against the law. All employees have a legal right to a workplace free from sexual harassment, and employees can enforce this right by filing a complaint internally with the Library, or with a government agency or in court under federal, state or local antidiscrimination laws.

Policy:

1. The Library’s Policy applies to all employees, applicants for employment, interns, whether paid or unpaid, contractors and persons conducting business with the Library, regardless of immigration status. The term “employee” in this policy refers to this collective group.
2. Sexual harassment will not be tolerated. Any employee or individual covered by this policy who engages in sexual harassment or retaliation will be subject to remedial and/or disciplinary action, including, but not limited to, counseling, suspension or termination.
3. Retaliation Prohibition: No person covered by this Policy shall be subject to adverse employment action including being discharged, disciplined, discriminated against, or otherwise subject to adverse employment action because the employee reports an incident of sexual harassment, provides information, or otherwise assists in any investigation of a sexual harassment complaint. The Library has a zero-tolerance policy for such retaliation against anyone who, in good faith reports or provides information about suspected sexual harassment. Any employee of the Library who retaliates against anyone involved in a sexual harassment investigation will be subjected to disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Any employee, paid or unpaid intern, or non-employee, working in the workplace who believes they have been subject to such retaliation should inform a supervisor, manager, or the Library Director. Any employee, paid or unpaid intern, or non-employee who believes they have been a victim of such retaliation may also seek relief in other available forums, as explained below in the section on Legal Protections.

4. Sexual harassment is offensive, is a violation of our policies, is unlawful, may subject the Library to liability for harm to targets of sexual harassment. Harassers may also be individually subject to liability. Employees of every level who engage in sexual harassment, including managers and supervisors who engage in sexual harassment or who allow such behavior to continue, may be penalized for such misconduct.

5. The Library will conduct a prompt, thorough and, to the extent feasible, confidential investigation that ensures due process for all parties, whenever management receives a complaint about sexual harassment, or otherwise knows of possible sexual harassment occurring. Effective corrective action will be taken whenever sexual harassment is found to have occurred. All employees, including managers and supervisors, are required to cooperate with any internal investigation of sexual harassment.

6. All employees are encouraged to report any harassment or behaviors that violate this policy. The Library will provide all employees a complaint form for employees to report harassment and file complaints.

7. Managers and supervisors are required to report any complaint that they receive, or any harassment that they observe or become aware of to the Library Director.

8. This policy applies to all employees, paid or unpaid interns, and non-employees and all must follow and uphold this policy. This policy must be provided to employees upon hiring and shall be posted prominently in all work locations.

Sexual Harassment Prevention Team

The Library shall annually appoint the following members to its Sexual Harassment Team:

- Title IX Coordinator: This person shall be responsible for coordinating compliance efforts.
- Investigator: This person investigates formal complaints and may also serve as the Title IX Coordinator.
- Decision-Maker: This person makes a determination after the investigation is complaint and the entire record has been reviewed.
- Appellate Decision-Maker: This person is authorized to make a determination upon an appeal.

The Title IX Coordinator and Investigator shall be an employee and may be the same person. The Facilitator, Decision-Maker, and Appellate Decision-Maker need not be an employee, but cannot be the person appointed as the Title IX Coordinator or Investigator.

What Is “Sexual Harassment”?

Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination and is unlawful under federal, state, and (where applicable) local law. Sexual harassment includes harassment on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, self-identified or perceived sex, gender expression, gender identity and the status of being transgender.

Sexual harassment includes unwelcome conduct which is either of a sexual nature, or which is directed at an individual because of that individual’s sex when:

- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment, even if the reporting individual is not the intended target of the sexual harassment;
- Such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment; or
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting an individual’s employment.

A sexually harassing hostile work environment including, but not limited to, words, signs, jokes, pranks, intimidation or physical violence which are of a sexual nature, or which are directed at an individual because of that individual’s sex. Sexual harassment also consists of any unwanted verbal or physical advances, sexually explicit derogatory statements or sexually discriminatory remarks made by someone which are offensive or objectionable to the recipient, which cause the recipient discomfort or humiliation, which interfere with the recipient’s job performance.

Sexual harassment also occurs when a person in authority tries to trade job benefits for sexual favors. This can include hiring, promotion, continued employment or any other terms, conditions or privileges of employment. This is also called “quid pro quo” harassment.

Any employee who feels harassed should report so that any violation of this policy can be corrected promptly. Any harassing conduct, even a single incident, can be addressed under this policy.

“Sexual Violence” means physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person’s will or where a person is incapable of giving consent. A person may be incapable of giving consent due to age, drug or alcohol use, or an intellectual or other disability. Sexual violence includes but is not limited to, acts such as rape, sexual assault, sexual battery and sexual coercion. All such acts of sexual violence are forms of sexual harassment.

“Dating Violence” means violence committed by a person (A) who is or has been in social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and (B) where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: (i) the length of the relationship; (ii) the type of relationship; and (iii) the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

“Stalking” means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to (A) fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or (B) suffer substantial emotional distress.

Examples of Sexual Harassment

The following describes some of the types of acts that may be unlawful sexual harassment and that are strictly prohibited:

- Physical acts of a sexual nature, such as:
 - Touching, pinching, patting, kissing, hugging, grabbing, brushing against another employee's body or poking another employees' body;
 - Rape, sexual battery, molestation or attempts to commit these assaults.
- Unwanted sexual advances or propositions, such as:
 - Requests for sexual favors accompanied by implied or overt threats concerning the target's job performance evaluation, a promotion or other job benefits or detriments;
 - Subtle or obvious pressure for unwelcome sexual activities.
- Sexually oriented gestures, noises, remarks, jokes or comments about a person's sexuality or sexual experience, which create a hostile work environment.
- Sex stereotyping occurs when conduct or personality traits are considered inappropriate simply because they may not conform to other people's ideas or perceptions about how individuals of a particular sex should act or look.
- Sexual or discriminatory displays or publications anywhere in the workplace, such as:
 - Displaying pictures, posters, calendars, graffiti, objects, promotional material, reading materials or other materials that are sexually demeaning or pornographic. This includes such sexual displays on workplace computers or cell phones and sharing such displays while in the workplace.
- Hostile actions taken against an individual because of that individual's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and the status of being transgender, such as:
 - Interfering with, destroying or damaging a person's workstation, tools or equipment, or otherwise interfering with the individual's ability to perform the job;
 - Sabotaging an individual's work;
 - Bullying, yelling, name-calling.

Who can be a target of sexual harassment?

Sexual harassment can occur between any individuals, regardless of their sex or gender. State and/or federal law protects employees, paid or unpaid interns, and non-employees, including independent contractors, and those employed by companies contracting to provide services in the workplace. A perpetrator of sexual harassment can be a superior, a subordinate, a coworker or anyone in the workplace including an independent contractor, contract worker, vendor, client, customer or visitor.

Where can sexual harassment occur?

Unlawful sexual harassment is not limited to the physical workplace itself. It can occur while employees are traveling for business or at Library-sponsored events or parties. Calls, texts, emails, and social media usage by employees can constitute unlawful workplace harassment, even if they occur away from the workplace premises, on personal devices, or during non-work hours.

What is “Retaliation”?

Unlawful retaliation can be any action that could discourage a worker from coming forward to make or support a sexual harassment claim. Adverse action need not be job-related or occur in the workplace to constitute unlawful retaliation.

Such retaliation is unlawful under federal, state, and (where applicable) local law. The New York State Human Rights Law protects any individual who has engaged in “protected activity.” Protected activity occurs when a person has:

- made a complaint of sexual harassment, either internally or with any anti-discrimination agency;
- testified or assisted in a proceeding involving sexual harassment under the Human Rights Law or other anti-discrimination law;
- opposed sexual harassment by making a verbal or informal complaint to management, or by simply informing a supervisor or manager of harassment;
- reported that another employee has been sexually harassed; or
- encouraged a fellow employee to report harassment.

Even if the alleged harassment does not turn out to rise to the level of a violation of law, the individual is protected from retaliation if the person had a good faith belief that the practices were unlawful. However, the retaliation provision is not intended to protect persons making intentionally false charges of harassment.

Reporting Sexual Harassment

Preventing sexual harassment is everyone’s responsibility. The Library cannot prevent or remedy sexual harassment unless it knows about it. Any employee, paid or unpaid intern or non-employee who has been subjected to behavior that may constitute sexual harassment is encouraged to report such behavior to a supervisor, manager or the Library Director. Anyone who witnesses or becomes aware of potential instances of sexual harassment should report such behavior to a supervisor, manager, the Library Director and/or a Title IX Compliance Officer.

Reports of sexual harassment may be made verbally or in writing. A form for submission of a written complaint is attached to this Policy, and all employees are encouraged to use this complaint form. Employees who are reporting sexual harassment on behalf of other employees should use the complaint form and note that it is on another employee’s behalf. Such report may be made at any time (including during non-business hours) by using the telephone number or electronic mail address, or by mail.

Employees, paid or unpaid interns, or non-employees who believe they have been a target of sexual harassment may also seek assistance in other available forums, as explained below in the section on Legal Protections.

Supervisory Responsibilities

All supervisors and managers who receive a complaint or information about suspected sexual harassment, observe what may be sexually harassing behavior or for any reason suspect that sexual harassment is occurring, are required to report such suspected sexual harassment to the Library Director and/or a Title IX Compliance Officer, irrespective of whether the affected individual files a complaint. If the complaint involves the Library Director, the supervisor/manager must report the suspected sexual harassment to the President of the Board of Trustees.

In addition to being subject to discipline if they engaged in sexually harassing conduct themselves, supervisors and managers will be subject to discipline for failing to report suspected sexual harassment or otherwise knowingly allowing sexual harassment to continue.

Supervisors and managers will also be subject to discipline for engaging in any retaliation.

Complaint and Investigation of Sexual Harassment

All complaints or information about suspected sexual harassment will be investigated, whether that information was reported in verbal or written form. Investigations will be conducted in a timely manner and will be confidential to the extent possible.

An investigation of any complaint, information or knowledge of suspected sexual harassment will be prompt and thorough and should be completed within 30 days when possible. The investigation will be confidential to the extent possible. All persons involved, including complainants, witnesses and alleged perpetrators will be accorded due process to protect their rights to a fair and impartial investigation.

Any employee may be required to cooperate as needed in an investigation of suspected sexual harassment. The Library will not tolerate retaliation against employees who report and/or participate in any investigation.

Investigations will be done in accordance with the following steps to the extent feasible:

A. Initial Procedure

The Title IX Coordinator/Investigator, or designee will conduct a preliminary review when they receive a verbal or written complaint of sexual harassment, or if they observe sexual harassment. If the complaint is oral, the Title IX Coordinator/Investigator, or designee, will encourage the complainant or informant to complete the written complaint form, a copy of which is attached to this Policy. If he or she refuses, the Title IX Coordinator/Investigator, or designee, will prepare a complaint form based on the oral reporting. Except in the case of severe or criminal conduct, the Title IX Coordinator/Investigator or designee should make all reasonable efforts to resolve complaints informally. The goal of informal investigation and resolution procedures is to end the harassment and obtain a prompt and equitable resolution to a complaint. All persons involved in an investigation (complainants, witnesses and alleged harassers) will be accorded due process to protect their rights to a fair and impartial investigation. This investigation shall be prompt and thorough, and shall be completed as soon as possible.

Upon learning of potential sexual harassment, the Title IX Coordinator must promptly contact the complainant confidentially to discuss the availability of supportive measures, consider the complainant's wishes with respect to supportive measures, inform the complainant of the availability of supportive measures with or without the filing of a formal complaint and explain to the complainant the process for filing a formal complaint. Examples of supportive measures may include, depending on the circumstances and job responsibilities, counseling, added supervision, modifications of work schedules, restrictions on contact between the parties, changes in work locations, leave of absence, and/or increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the Library. The Library also maintains the authority to place an employee on administrative leave, subject to any contractual considerations.

Immediately, but no later than two working days following receipt of a complaint, the Title IX Coordinator/Investigator shall begin an investigation of the complaint according to the following steps:

1. Interview the target and document the conversation. Instruct the target to have no contact or communication regarding the complaint with the alleged harasser. Ask the target specifically what action they want taken in order to resolve the complaint. Refer the target, as appropriate, to staff or appropriate outside agencies for counseling services.
2. Review any written documentation of the harassment prepared by the target. If the target has not prepared written documentation, ask the target to do so, providing alternative formats for individuals with disabilities who may need accommodation. If the complainant refuses to complete a complaint form or written documentation, the Title IX Coordinator/Investigator shall complete a complaint form based on the verbal report.
3. Request, review, obtain and preserve relevant evidence of harassment (e.g., documents, emails, phone records, etc.), if any exist.
4. Interview the alleged harasser regarding the complaint and inform the alleged harasser that if the objectionable conduct has occurred, it must cease immediately. Document the conversation. Provide the alleged harasser an opportunity to respond to the charges in writing. Inform the harasser that he/she is not responsible for the alleged conduct until a determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of the investigation process.
5. Instruct the alleged harasser to have no contact or communication regarding the complaint with the target and to not retaliate against the target. Warn the alleged harasser that if they make such contact with or retaliate against the target, they will be subject to immediate disciplinary action.
6. Interview any witnesses to the complaint. Where appropriate, obtain a written statement from each witness. Caution each witness to keep the complaint and their statement confidential. Employees may be required to cooperate as needed in investigations of suspected sexual harassment.
7. Review all documentation and information relevant to the complaint.
8. Where appropriate, suggest mediation as a potential means of resolving the complaint. In addition to mediation, use appropriate informal methods to resolve the complaint, including but not limited to:

- a. discussion with the accused, informing them of the Library's policies and indicating that the behavior must stop;
 - b. suggesting counseling and/or sensitivity training;
 - c. conducting training for the department in which the behavior occurred, calling attention to the consequences of engaging in such behavior;
 - d. requesting a letter of apology to the complainant;
 - e. writing letters of caution or reprimand; and/or
 - f. separating the parties.
9. Involvement and Notification
- b. A determination of responsibility shall be made in writing by a Decision-Maker(s), who is (are) not the Title IX Coordinator or the Investigator, by using the clear and convincing evidence standard to determine whether the alleged harasser is responsible for the alleged conduct. At the conclusion of the investigation, the Title IX Compliance Officer, or designee, will report the findings to the Library Director. Such written determination must be provided to all parties simultaneously. Furthermore, such determination becomes final on either (1) the date that the parties are provided with written determination of the result of the appeal, or (2) if no appeal is filed, the date on which an appeal would no longer be considered timely. If it is found that prohibited sexual harassment has, in fact, occurred, the Title IX Coordinator, or designee, will make a recommendation to the Library Director and appropriate corrective action will be taken.
 - c. The Library will also ensure that all individuals designated as a Title IX Coordinator, Compliance Officer, Investigator, Decision-Maker, and any person facilitating the informal resolution process has received training regarding the definition of sexual harassment and how to conduct an investigation and grievance process.
 - d. The Investigator will report back to both the target and the accused, notifying them in writing, and also in person as appropriate regarding the outcome of the investigation and the action taken to resolve the complaint. The Investigator will instruct the target to report immediately if the objectionable behavior occurs again or if the alleged harasser retaliates against them. The Investigator will notify the target that if they desire further investigation and action, they may request an investigation by contacting the Appellate Decision Maker. The Investigator will also notify the target of their right to contact the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the New York State Division of Human Rights, and/or a private attorney.
10. Create a written documentation of the investigation, kept in a secure and confidential location, containing:
- a. A list of all documentation and other evidence reviewed, along with a detailed summary;
 - b. A list of names of those interviewed along with a detailed summary of their statements;
 - c. A timeline of events;
 - d. A summary of prior relevant incidents, reported or unreported; and
 - e. The final resolution of the complaint, together with any corrective action(s).

If the initial investigation results in a determination that sexual harassment did occur, the Title IX Coordinator/Investigator will promptly notify the Library Director, who will then take prompt disciplinary action in accordance with Library policy, the applicable collective bargaining agreement or state law.

If a complaint received by the Title IX Coordinator/Investigator contains evidence or allegations of serious or extreme harassment, such as criminal touching, quid pro quo (e.g., offering an employment reward or punishment as an inducement for sexual favors), or acts which shock the conscience of a reasonable person, the complaint will be referred promptly to the Library Director. In addition, where the Title IX Coordinator/Investigator has a reasonable suspicion that the alleged harassment involves criminal activity, they must immediately notify the Library Director, who will then contact appropriate law enforcement authorities. Where criminal activity is alleged or suspected by a library employee, the accused employee will be suspended pending the outcome of the investigation, consistent with all contractual or statutory requirements.

Any party who is not satisfied with the outcome of the initial investigation by the Investigator or the Title IX Coordinator may request an investigation to the Library's Title IX Appellate Decision Maker within 30 days.

B. Title IX Appellate Decision Maker Procedure

The Title IX Appellate Decision Maker will promptly investigate and resolve all sexual harassment complaints that are referred by the Title IX coordinator, as well as those appealed following an initial investigation by the Title IX Coordinator. In the event the complaint of sexual harassment involves the Title IX Appellate Decision Maker, the complaint will be filed with or referred to the Board President, who will refer the complaint to a trained investigator not employed by the Library for investigation.

The Appellate-Level Decision Maker investigation should begin as soon as possible but not later than three working days following receipt of the complaint by the Appellate-Level Decision Maker or Board President.

If a Library investigation results in a determination that sexual harassment did occur, prompt corrective action will be taken to end the harassment.

No later than 30 days following receipt of the complaint, the Title IX Appellate Decision -Maker (or in cases involving the Title IX Appellate Decision -Maker, the Board-appointed investigator) will notify the target and alleged harasser, in writing, of the outcome of the investigation. If additional time is needed to complete the investigation or take appropriate action, the Title IX Appellate Decision -Maker or Board-appointed investigator will provide all parties with a written status report within 30 days following receipt of the complaint.

The target and the alleged harasser have the right to be represented by a person of their choice, at their own expense, during sexual harassment investigations and hearings.

Training of Staff

This policy should be posted prominently in all work locations to the extent practical (for example, in a main office, but not an offsite work location). The Library will provide this policy to all employees and will provide this policy to new employees upon hire.

The Director/designee(s) shall affirmatively discuss the topic of sexual harassment with all employees in order to express the Library's condemnation of such conduct and explain the sanctions for harassment. All employees of the Library shall receive training on an annual basis which is interactive, and which includes:

- an explanation of sexual harassment;
- examples of conduct that would constitute unlawful sexual harassment;
- information concerning the federal and state statutory provisions concerning sexual harassment and remedies available to victims of sexual harassment; and
- information concerning employees' rights of redress and all available forums for adjudicating complaints.

The Title IX Coordinator, Investigator, Decision-Maker and Appellate Decision-Maker shall be trained in their roles and responsibilities.

Recordkeeping

All documentation from sexual harassment investigations along with training materials must be maintained for a period of seven (7) years. Additionally, all materials used to train Title IX coordinators, investigators, decision makers, and appellate decision makers must be posted on the Library's website.

Legal Protections and External Remedies

Sexual harassment is not only prohibited by the Library but is also prohibited by state, federal, and, where applicable, local law.

Aside from the internal process at the Library, employees may also choose to pursue legal remedies with the following governmental entities at any time.

New York State Division of Human Rights (DHR)

The Human Rights Law (HRL), codified as N.Y. Executive Law, art. 15, § 290 et seq., applies to employers in New York State with regard to sexual harassment, and protects employees, paid or unpaid interns and non-employees regardless of immigration status. A complaint alleging violation of the Human Rights Law may be filed either with DHR or in New York State Supreme Court.

Complaints with DHR may be filed any time within one year of the harassment. If an individual did not file at DHR, they can sue directly in state court under the HRL, within three years of the alleged discrimination. An individual may not file with DHR if they have already filed a HRL complaint in state court.

Complaining internally to the Library does not extend your time to file with DHR or in court. The one year or three years is counted from date of the most recent incident of harassment.

You do not need an attorney to file a complaint with DHR, and there is no cost to file with DHR. DHR will investigate your complaint and determine whether there is probable cause to believe that discrimination has occurred. Probable cause cases are forwarded to a public hearing before an administrative law judge. If discrimination is found after a hearing, DHR has the power to award relief, which varies but may include requiring your employer to take action to stop the harassment, or redress the damage caused, including paying monetary damages, attorney's fees and civil fines.

DHR's main office contact information is: NYS Division of Human Rights, One Fordham Plaza, Fourth Floor, Bronx, New York 10458, (718) 741-8400, www.dhr.ny.gov

Contact DHR at (888) 392-3644 or visit dhr.ny.gov/complaint for more information about filing a complaint. The website has a complaint form that can be downloaded, filled out, notarized and mailed to DHR. The website also contains contact information for DHR's regional offices across New York State.

United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC)

The EEOC enforces federal anti-discrimination laws, including Title VII of the 1964 federal Civil Rights Act (codified as 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq.). An individual can file a complaint with the EEOC anytime within 300 days from the harassment. There is no cost to file a complaint with the EEOC. The EEOC will investigate the complaint, and determine whether there is reasonable cause to believe that discrimination has occurred, at which point the EEOC will issue a Right to Sue letter permitting the individual to file a complaint in federal court.

The EEOC does not hold hearings or award relief, but may take other action including pursuing cases in federal court on behalf of complaining parties. Federal courts may award remedies if discrimination is found to have occurred.

If an employee believes that he/she has been discriminated against at work, he/she can file a "Charge of Discrimination." The EEOC has district, area, and field offices where complaints can be filed. Contact the EEOC by calling 1-800-669-4000 (1-800-669-6820 (TTY)), visiting their website at www.eeoc.gov or via email at info@eeoc.gov

If an individual filed an administrative complaint with DHR, DHR will file the complaint with the EEOC to preserve the right to proceed in federal court.

Local Protections

Many localities enforce laws protecting individuals from sexual harassment and discrimination. An individual should contact the county, city or town in which they live to find out if such a law exists.

Contact the Local Police Department

If the harassment involves unwanted physical touching, coerced physical confinement or coerced sex acts, the conduct may constitute a crime. Contact the local police department.

SUSTAINABILITY POLICY

The West Babylon Public Library recognizes the important role libraries play in larger community conversations about resiliency and a sustainable future. The Library Board of Trustees, Administration, and staff are committed to reducing our environmental footprint and promoting environmental stewardship at all levels of our organization. Our goal is to minimize our organization's impact and maximize future generations' ability to live, work, and play in our shared natural environment, with equal access to clean air, clean water, and natural resources.

The Library supports sustainable principles that ensure a resilient, sustainable community and Library for all residents. We strive for economic efficiency, to conserve energy and water, support renewable energy resources, minimize pollution and waste, protect habitat, and encourage environmentally preferable transportation. These efforts are extended to contractor and supplier relationships. We will encourage contractors and suppliers serving or otherwise acting on behalf of the organization to meet our standards of environmental performance.

The Library is committed to purchasing more environmentally preferable goods and services provided they meet our performance needs, and are available within a reasonable period of time at a reasonable cost. By including environmental considerations in our procurement decisions, along with our traditional concerns with price, performance, and availability, we will remain fiscally responsible while promoting products and services that have a reduced effect on human health and the environment. The Library will attempt to minimize waste, including packaging, waste produced by the product and waste generated by the disposal of the product and to maximize the reuse and recycling of materials. The Library will continually strive to improve its environmental impacts and set goals to reduce negative environmental impact, when practicable.

Employee understanding and involvement are essential to the implementation of this environmental policy. Administration and the Board of Trustees encourage Library staff to be proactive and apply sustainable thinking in the areas of their facilities, operations, policy, technology, programming and partnerships. All employees will receive a copy of this policy and will be educated about and participate in the Library's efforts to strive towards the "triple bottom line" definition of sustainability: using practices that are environmentally sound, economically feasible, and socially equitable.

TELECOMMUTING POLICY AND AGREEMENT

The West Babylon Public Library's Telecommuting Policy is designed to recognize the benefits of providing employees alternatives to traditional work practices that provide flexibility, to increase the effectiveness of the library.

I. Definition

For the purposes of this policy, telecommuting is defined as a remote-access arrangement for at least part of the workweek on a regular basis. In general, telecommuting is a privilege, which may be granted under appropriate circumstances to eligible employees whose job responsibilities are suited to such an arrangement.

II. Eligibility

A. Full-time or part-time employees whose job functions lend themselves to working remotely (as defined by the Director) may apply for participation by completing a Telecommuting Agreement. Employees currently working in other flexible scheduling arrangements are not precluded from participating.

B. The choice of a work schedule for an individual must be made subject to the overriding requirements that full department operations, services, and commitments will be maintained. In all cases, flexible schedules are subject to approval by the Director.

C. Employees must have a demonstrated ability to work well with minimal supervision, have a thorough knowledge and understanding of their job tasks and operations, have a history of reliable and responsible accomplishment of work duties, and have demonstrated an ability to establish priorities and manage their time.

D. The opportunity to work at home is a management option; telecommuting is not a universal employee benefit. An employee's participation in the Telecommuting Program is entirely voluntary. Either the employee or manager may terminate telecommuting without cause. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Library is forced to close its facility and the Library determines to provide Library services remotely, the Library may direct employees to telecommute during the period of such closure.

E. Requests for telecommuting will be considered on an individual basis to determine if the employee has the necessary skills and abilities to participate in the program; and if the telecommuting employee can adequately perform the employee's job duties remotely. Telecommuting requests may originate from the employee or the Library.

F. Telecommuting is not available for long-distance work. Employees must reside in the geographical area of their regular work location. The telecommuting location must not be in an area that exposes the Library to new tax or other regulatory liabilities.

III. Guidelines

A. The approval of telecommuting, and the determination of the number of days an individual may telecommunicate are made based on the Library's ability to maintain full departmental operations, services, and commitments. In all cases, telecommuting schedules are subject to Director/department and Business Office approval. Employees are expected to normally be in the office at least one day per week.

B. Employees are required to complete a Telecommuting Agreement (see attachment) and have it approved before they begin telecommuting. A current signed and approved Telecommuting Agreement must be on file during any telecommuting arrangement.

C. Telecommuting Agreement should be reviewed quarterly but must be reviewed annually by the Department Head and Director and renewed annually by the employee, Department Head and Director.

D. The Director and the employee must agree upon the equipment to be used in telecommuting. The employer is not required to provide equipment for the telecommuting location; however, with the approval of the Director, the employee may be provided with employer-owned equipment necessary to perform work assignments.

E. The Library has established security controls and conditions for use of Library equipment. The Library will apply approved safeguards to protect Library equipment and supplies. All Library records, files and documents must be protected from unauthorized disclosure or damage and returned safely to the Library immediately upon request. In addition, any computers used for the editing or sending of Library documents must have up-to-date virus protection active. Computer Department staff are responsible for upgrading, maintaining, and monitoring equipment assigned off-site.

F. In order to reduce worker's compensation liabilities, employees will not use their homes to receive work-related visitors. Meetings should take place at the Library, or with the Director's approval, at a restaurant or other appropriate location. Telecommuters are covered by worker's compensation when performing official work duties at the telecommuting location.

G. Telecommuting employees will verify via the Telecommuting Agreement that the telecommuting location provides workspace that is free of safety and fire hazards and shall agree that the Library will not be held responsible for any and all claims, excluding worker's compensation claims, that result from working at the telecommuting location.

H. While telecommuting, employees must be accessible, within reason, via telephone and e-mails during agreed upon work hours. Telecommuters must notify their office if they leave their telecommunicating locations, much like they would inform their Department Head or colleagues when leaving the traditional office during the workday. If a meeting is scheduled on a telecommuting day, employees must go to the office to attend the meeting or make other arrangements, such as teleconferencing.

I. Employees will maintain their pay status while working from a telecommuting location. Employees who work pre-approved overtime will be compensated in accordance with the Staff Association Agreement stipulations governing overtime. Department Heads are responsible for not accepting the results of unapproved overtime work. By signing the Telecommuting Agreement, employees agree that failing to obtain proper approval for overtime work may result in removal from the telecommuting program or other appropriate action.

J. Telecommuters are subject to the same Library policies and procedures as other employees.

K. Telecommuting will not adversely affect an employee's eligibility for advancement or any other employee right or benefit.

L. The Library reserves the right to modify or eliminate the Telecommuting Program at any time.

IV. Procedures

A. If the employee and job are deemed suitable for telecommuting, a Telecommuting Agreement specifying the terms and conditions of telecommuting must be signed by the employee, the employee's Department Head, and the Director prior to the start of the telecommuting arrangement.

B. The original Telecommuting Agreement will be included in the employee's personnel file. The employee and Department Head should retain a copy of the Telecommuting Agreement for their records.

C. The employee and the Library will agree upon whether Library-owned equipment is to be used in the telecommuting arrangement.

D. A Telecommuting Work Plan must be included as part of the Telecommuting Agreement. The Telecommuting Work Plan must include the following:

a. Specific description of the duties to be performed; b. Established workdays and work hours; c. Explanation as to how supervision will be provided; and d. Explanation as to how work products and outputs will be reviewed monitored and measured.

E. The Director must be notified in writing of any modification to or cancellation of any Telecommuting Agreement.

F. Individuals should check with their tax accountant to determine if they are eligible for tax credits related to a home office.

WEST BABYLON PUBLIC LIBRARY TUTORING POLICY

The West Babylon Public Library permits tutoring within the library in accordance with the following policy, which is intended to provide a balance between use of the Library by tutors and their students and use of the Library by other members of our community.

- Tutoring is allowed only in areas of the Library designated for tutors, and the Library may, at any time, change the area designated for tutoring. Certain areas may not be available if they are needed for Library programs or events.
- ##### Tables and chairs are available on a first come, first served basis. Tables cannot be reserved for tutoring.
- All tutoring sessions must be kept as quiet as possible. Conversations or instruction should not be loud enough to distract other Library users.
- The West Babylon Public Library does not sponsor, recommend, promote or assume liability or responsibility for the work of tutors who use Library space.
- Tutors may not advertise that the West Babylon Public Library is their place for doing business or imply any type of sponsorship of their activities at the Library.
- The exchange of money for tutoring services on Library property is strictly prohibited.
- The Library is not obligated to accommodate any tutor.
- Access to the Library's computers for tutors and their students must be in compliance with the West Babylon Public Library's Internet Use Policy and Guidelines.
- Tutors and their students must comply with existing policies governing behavior in the Library.
- During the tutor session, tutors are responsible for the behavior of their student(s) who are under the age of 17, until they are released to a parent/guardian or to an adult providing authorized transportation.

UNATTENDED CHILDREN POLICY

The West Babylon Public Library welcomes children of all ages to use and enjoy the facilities, collections and programs offered by the Library. The safety and well being of patrons of all ages and the maintenance of an atmosphere conducive to Library use are major concerns.

Children under the age of 11 may not be in the Library unattended. All guardians must be over the age of 16 and present at all times. No child may be left alone in the Children's Room while the parent or guardian is elsewhere in the building. Though staff will always respond with care and concern, they cannot assume responsibility for the safety and conduct of minors when they are unattended. Children must be attended and adequately supervised at all times by a parent/guardian or other responsible person. When children participate in Library sponsored programs, parents or guardians are required to remain in the Library.

Children, when using the Library unattended, will be expected to follow the rules of conduct as outlined in the "Maintenance of Public Order Policy." If in the judgment of Library staff, an unsupervised child's conduct exposes the child or others to risk, disrupts the operation of the Library or requires continual staff intervention, then the staff will require that such child and those with such child leave the Library, unless in the judgment of the Library staff, the child cannot safely leave the premises, due to age, capacity, weather, time of day or other circumstances. In such event, the Library staff will attempt to contact the parent or legal guardian and request the child's removal from the Library. If a parent or legal guardian is unavailable, then law enforcement authorities will be notified.

When the safety of an unattended child is in doubt at closing time, every effort will be made to assist the child in calling his/her parent or guardian. If such cannot be located or if the waiting period exceeds 15 minutes, Library staff will contact the Suffolk County Police Department and stay with the child until they arrive.

WEST BABYLON PUBLIC LIBRARY

WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

The purpose of this policy is to encourage Library trustees, officers, employees and volunteers to report instances of suspected illegal or improper conduct such as theft, fraud, and mismanagement of Library resources, and violations of Library policies and regulations, as well as to inform Library trustees, officers, employees and volunteers of the protections afforded them under Section 740 of the Labor Law (“whistleblower law”), Section 75-B of the Civil Service Law and Not for Profit Corporations Law Section 760-B. These laws prohibit a public employer from retaliating against a trustee, officer, employee or volunteer who discloses to the Library information concerning a suspected violation of law, rule or regulation, which creates a substantial and specific danger to the public health or safety, or which the person reasonably believes to be true and reasonably believes constitutes an improper action by a trustee, officer, employee or volunteer.

No trustee, officer, employee or volunteer of the Library reporting any actions or suspected actions taken by Library trustees, officers, employees or volunteers, who in good faith believes is illegal, fraudulent or in violation of any substantial Library policy, shall suffer intimidation, harassment discrimination or other retaliation or, in the case of employees, adverse employment consequences.

The Board of Trustees expects the Library’s trustees, officers, employees and volunteers to fulfill the public’s trust and to conduct themselves responsibly in accordance with Library policies, as well as applicable state and federal laws and regulations.

For purposes of this policy, the term “wrongful conduct” shall be defined to include:

- Illegal conduct, including theft of money, property, or resources;
- Misuse of authority for personal gain or other non-Library purpose;
- Fraud;
- Violations of applicable federal and state laws and regulations; and/or serious violations of Library policies and/or procedures.

Disclosure and Investigation

Trustees, officers, employees and volunteers who have knowledge of wrongful conduct by an employee or volunteer or have reasonable cause to believe that such wrongful conduct has occurred shall report it to the Library Director. If the Director is the person suspected of wrongful conduct, it should be reported to the President of the Board of Trustees.

Trustees, officers, employees and volunteers who have knowledge of wrongful conduct by a trustee or officer or have reasonable cause to believe that such wrongful conduct has occurred shall report it to the President of the Board. If the Board President is the person suspected of wrongful conduct, it should be reported to the other trustees who serve on the Board.

Upon receiving a report of alleged wrongful conduct, the Library Director, Board President or the trustees shall take immediate steps to conduct an investigation with or without designees.

The person or persons conducting the investigation shall maintain a written record of the allegations, conduct an investigation to ensure that the appropriate authorities investigate the disclosure, and provide the Board of Trustees with a confidential report.

Except as otherwise provided in either state and/or federal law, the person or persons conducting the investigation, shall reasonably attempt to protect the identity of the person who is making the disclosure in a confidential manner, and will make reasonable efforts to maintain the confidentiality of the person reporting the conduct, provided that doing so will not interfere with the investigation of the specific allegations and circumstances.

Complaints of Reprisal

The provisions of Section 740 of the Labor Law (“whistleblower law”), Section 75-B of the Civil Service Law and Section 715-B Not-for-Profit Corporation Law prohibit retaliatory personnel action against a trustee, employee, officer or volunteer who discloses information concerning either a violation of law, rule or regulation, which creates a substantial and specific danger to the public health or safety, or which the employee reasonably believes to be true and reasonably believes constitutes an improper governmental action. However, if an employee discloses information which is false, or which is prohibited from disclosure by law, the employee is not protected by these provisions.

An employee who has been subject to an adverse employment action based on his or her prior disclosure of alleged or actual wrongful conduct may contest the action by filing a written complaint of reprisal with the Library Director. If the allegations involved actions of the Library Director, an employee may contest the action by filing a written complaint of reprisal with the President of the Board.

Any such complaints will be reviewed expeditiously to determine:

- whether the complainant made a disclosure of alleged wrongful conduct before an adverse employment action was taken;
- whether the responding party could reasonably have been construed to have had knowledge of the disclosure and the identity of the disclosing employee;
- whether the complainant has in fact suffered an adverse employment action after having made the disclosure; and

- whether the complainant alleges that adverse employment action occurred as a result of the disclosure.

If the Library Director, Board President, or a designee determines that all of the above elements are present, a review officer or panel shall be appointed by the Board of Trustees to investigate the claim and make recommendations to the Board. At the time of appointment, the complainant and respondent shall be informed in writing of:

- the intent to proceed with an investigation;
- the specific allegations to be investigated;
- the appointment of the review officer or panel; and
- the opportunity of each party to support or respond, in writing, to the allegation.

Once the review officer or panel has conducted a review and considers the investigation to be complete, the officer or panel will notify the Board of Trustees and designee of its completion. From the date of that notice, the review officer or panel has thirty (30) days to report its findings and make any recommendations they deem appropriate to the Board of Trustees. The Board shall issue a letter of findings to both the complainant and the respondent.

Nothing in this policy is intended to interfere with legitimate employment decisions. Moreover, the protections afforded under this Policy and “whistleblower laws” are not applicable under circumstances where the Library had or has independent grounds for disciplinary actions and proceedings against an employee.

The Board of Trustees or their designee may establish regulations or procedures necessary to implement this policy.

This policy and any accompanying regulations shall be published and posted on the Library’s official bulletin board in the Staff Room and distributed to all trustees, officers, employees and volunteers.

The Board of Trustees and the Library Director will annually review this policy and any related regulations and procedures to determine if modifications are necessary or appropriate.

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PREVENTION POLICY

PREAMBLE: Section “27-b” of the Labor Law, enacted on June 7, 2006, requires public employers to perform workplace evaluations or risk evaluations at each worksite and thereafter develop and implement programs to prevent and minimize workplace violence caused by assaults and homicides. The Law is designed to ensure that the risk of workplace assaults and homicides are regularly evaluated by public employers and that workplace violence protection programs are implemented to prevent and minimize the hazard to public employees. The Library’s implementation of the provisions of the Workplace Violence Prevention Law will be in accordance with Rules and Regulations to be enacted by the New York State Labor Department.

DEFINITION: The Library adopts the definition of “Workplace Violence” of the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH), as:

"violent acts (including physical assaults and threats of assaults) directed toward persons at work or on duty." Workplace violence is any physical assault, threatening behavior or verbal abuse occurring in the work setting.

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE RISK EVALUATION: The Library shall conduct a risk evaluation to determine the potential dangers that employees may face from workplace violence risks and assist in the development of a workplace violence prevention program. While workplace violence may occur in any workplace setting, certain employment settings may pose higher risks, including:

- Duties that involve the exchange of money and the imposition of fines, penalties and suspensions
- Working alone or in small numbers
- Working late evening or early morning hours
- Uncontrolled access to the workplace
- Security and maintenance of public order duties
- Working in community-based settings
- Areas of previous security problems

LIBRARY COMPLIANCE WITH STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS: The Library shall (1) perform a risk evaluation of the workplace to determine the presence of factors or situations that might place employees at risk from occupational assaults and homicides, (2) prepare a workplace violence prevention program and (3) inform and train employees on the requirements of the Law and identified workplace risk factors. Additionally, under circumstances where there are employed at the Library a minimum of twenty (20) or more full-time permanent employees, the Library will develop and implement a written workplace violence prevention program and provide employee training on workplace violence prevention measures and other information contained within the Library’s written program. The Library Administration shall also inform employees as to the location and availability of the written workplace violence prevention program. Employee workplace violence training must be provided at the time of job assignment and annually thereafter. The written workplace violence prevention program will be proactive, capable of assessing potential threats before they occur and capable of immediately responding to actual incidents of workplace violence.

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PREVENTION "RISK EVALUATION": The Library Administration will perform a risk evaluation inspection of the workplace focusing on the identification and assessment of potential hazards and conditions that might place employees at risk of occupational assaults or homicides. Risk evaluation techniques will include the following:

- An examination of the history of past incidents to identify patterns or trends which occurred in your workplace
- A review of Library records of occupational injury and illness logs and incident reports to identify if injuries have resulted from workplace violence incidents
- Inquiries of employees to obtain details associated with the occurrence of workplace violence incidents
- Conducting physical workplace security building surveys
- Conducting annual security analyses including the inspection of the Library Building and site, with possible evaluators being the Library Administrators, consultants or law enforcement authorities

EMPLOYEE AWARENESS: The Library employees' best protection from workplace violence is knowledge and understanding of the warning signs of potentially violent individuals or situations. The Library will emphasize training and education programs, as well as reinforcing the Library's zero tolerance workplace violence policy in an effort to reduce the possibility of workplace violence. Moreover, the Library will emphasize immediate reporting of any workplace violence incident to Library Administrators and the local law enforcement authorities to ensure prompt action.

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PREVENTION TRAINING PROGRAM: Workplace violence prevention training for employees will be specific to the Library facility and staff duties performed and shall address essential topics, including:

- Description of Workplace Violence
- Dissemination of information regarding early detection of potent violent conduct
- Expeditious communication of threats or suspicious behavior to Library security staff and Library Administration
- Expeditious communication of acts of violence to Library security staff and local law enforcement authorities
- Protocols for reporting threatened or actual workplace violence
 1. The first person becoming aware of threats of workplace violence or suspicious behavior will immediately report this information to Library security staff and the Library's Administration
 2. The Library's security staff or Director will approach the person exhibiting threatening or potentially threatening behavior and engage in appropriate questioning of such person
 3. If determined reasonably necessary, the Library's security staff and/or Director will confirm the identity of such person and his/her intentions and if warranted by reason of the severity of the risk, determine whether such person should be escorted from the Library building or to summon law enforcement authorities
- The Library's commitment to Zero Tolerance of Workplace Violence
- Strategies for avoiding incidents of Workplace Violence
- Workplace Violence Reporting Procedures
- Mandatory Reporting of all incidents
- Circumstances warranting Library investigation of individuals

- Employees' communications with Library Administrators relating to Workplace Violence

RECORD KEEPING and REPORTING REQUIREMENTS: The Library Administration shall comply with all statutory requirements for recording and reporting incidents of workplace violence (New York State Labor Law, Section "27-a" & NYCRR Part 801, Recording and Reporting Public Employees' Occupational Injuries and Illnesses). The Library shall record an employee's workplace violence injury if it results in death, days away from work, restricted work or transfer to another job, medical treatment beyond first aid and loss of consciousness. Additionally, employers should utilize accident and illness record-keeping information to ensure the effectiveness of the Library's written workplace violence prevention plan. The Library's Administrators shall report employee workplace violence related fatalities and multiple hospitalizations to the Department's Public Employee Safety and Health (PESH) Bureau within 8 hours of the incident. (NYCRR Part 801)

ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS: The Library Director shall be authorized to enact Administrative Regulations and Procedures to fulfill the requirements of this Policy and the Statute.
